39. I believe that 6 Endicott Street, Danvers, MA is a residence leased by the SACAIDA, MARTINEZ, MADERA organization as a third location, other than 46 Wyman Street, 115 Alley Street, and 17 Farm Avenue) at which to store/conceal either drugs or drug proceeds, and at which to register/garage various organization vehicles based upon the following facts: 1) SACAIDA's wife/spouse Sagrario Godinez was housed at 6 Endicott Street, Danvers, MA following her arrival from Mexico on November 13, 2003. According to intercepts over MADERA's facility on November 11, 2003, SACAIDA dispatched Sagrario to Massachusetts to organize the finances of his drug organization, and ready 6

Endicott Street for his own arrival. Along the building's right side are a number of used vehicles for sale. Facing the building (from left to right) there is a red door, two garage doors (that increase in size), another red door, and an oversized garage door followed by a white door. 41. I believe that Bob's Carburetor and Bob's Auto Sales located (together) at 62 Jefferson Avenue, Salem, MA are commercial businesses owned and operated by Robert RUSCIO, a significant and frequent drug customer of ROSALES and the SACAIADA/MARTINEZ/MADERA organization evidenced by multiple intercepts between RUSCIO and ROSALES. Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales are frequented by members of the SACAIADA drug organization (including SACAIADA, ROSALES, MARTINEZ, CHON, MADERA, GERMOSEN, GARCIA, and others) and is used, I believe, as a location to meet and/or conceal evidence of illegal drug distribution or money laundering based upon the following facts:

1) according to the utility, "National Grid," the listed subscriber for electrical service at 62 Jefferson Avenue, Salem, MA is Robert RUSCIO, DOB: 10/29/68, tel. no. 978 744-1441; 2) three of the four telephones from which RUSCIO was intercepted speaking with ROSALES about purchasing drugs -- (978) 733-1441; (978) 744-1442; and (978) 744-1783 -- are subscribed to either Bob's Carburetor ATTN: Robert RUSCIO, 60 Jefferson Avenue, Salem, MA or Bob's Auto Sales, 62 Jefferson Avenue, Salem, MA; 3) agents have conducted surveillance of Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales since the Spring of 2003 and have observed the following persons coming and going from this establishment on various occasions: RUSCIO, CHON, ROSALES, MARTINEZ, Ricardo MARTINEZ, ORTIZ, RUIZ, MADERA, SACAIADA and, most recently, on February 13, 2004 surveillance of Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales confirmed CHON at this address; 4) On September 20, 2003, MARTINEZ told ORTIZ to "go ahead and stop by the cars so you can give it (i.e. drug money) to my brother (referring to ROSALES)." A short time later, surveillance at Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales, 62 Jefferson Avenue, Salem, MA, observed ORTIZ arrive and enter the garage. Several minutes later, ORTIZ exited Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales, re-entered his vehicle and drove off; 5) On September 21, 2003, MARTINEZ directed ROSALES to "go to the dealership" (referring to Bob's Auto Sales) to find out how much money "Chapparo" owed MARTINEZ for a prior drug purchase; 6) On August 9, 2003, SA Harry Brady performed reconnaissance at Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales at 62 Jefferson Avenue, Salem, MA. As Brady walked up to the front of the business he made the following observations: (a) a black Jeep Cherokee (MA Reg. TC7279) blocked the front driveway; the same vehicle that surveillance has seen parked in front of both 1 Averill, Lynn, MA and 83 Story Street, Newburyport, MA - past and present homes of Valentin MARTINEZ and Ruth Saldivar; (b) MARTINEZ, himself, was standing in the bay area of the garage; (c) an Hispanic male approached Brady and introduced himself as "Juan" - Brady later recognized this individual as CHON; 6) practically every day since January 15, 2004, surveillance has observed CHON coming and going from Bob Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales; 7) on numerous occasions during the intercept, RUSCIO called ROSALES (target telephone #1, target telephone # 6, target telephone # 15) from Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales, ordered drugs from ROSALES, asked ROSALES to deliver the drugs to him "at the shop"; 8) on February 18, 2004, video surveillance observed SACAIDA arriving at Bob's Carburetor/Bob's Auto Sales driving the blue Ford Explorer; and 9) On February 20, 2004, SACAIDA called an Hispanic female, Lorena LNU, from target telephone # 18 and told her to send two (2) checks to him (via FedEx or UPS) at "...the dealership...62 Jefferson Avenue...Salem...zip code is 01970..up top you have to put, please, Andres Martinez." Lorena LNU replied, "okay, so its going to Andres Martinez, 62 Jefferson Avenue, Salem, Massachusetts 01970." "Uh-huh," answered SACAIDA, "yes, like that."

The lot contains many parked used vehicles. (A photograph of 892 Washington Street, Lynn, MA (Giovanni's BMW Auto Body) is included as Attachment B.)

43. I believe that Giovanni's BMW Auto Body located at 892 Washington Street is a commercial business owned and operated by Giovanni AVILA, a kilogram (cocaine) customer of MARTINEZ and ROSALES and the SACAIDA/MARTINEZ/MADERA organization as evidenced by intercepts between AVILA and MARTINEZ based upon the following facts: 1) according to the utility, "National Grid," the listed subscriber for electrical service at 892 Washington Street, Apt. #1, Lynn, MA is Giovanni AVILA, Tel. No. 781 595-8959; 2) 781 595-8959 is subscribed to Giovanni's BMW Auto Body; 3) Lynn property records indicate that "Giovanni's BMW Auto Body", 892 Washington Street, Lynn, MA is currently owned, jointly, by DANIELA REALTY TRUST and GIOVANNI AVILA TRUST and was purchased for $244,000 on December 23, 1993; 4) the property and improvements at 829 Washington Street, Lynn, MA are secured by a $275,000 mortgage from Broadway National Bank; the mortgagor are the DANIELA REALTY TRUST and the GIOVANNI AVILA TRUST; 5) surveillance has observed AVILA (the same person depicted in the MA Driver's License photograph of Giovanni AVILA, 892 Washington Street, Apt. #1, Lynn, MA) at this location (Giovanni's BMW Auto Body) most recently on February 25, 2004. A short time before AVILA was observed at his auto body shop, surveillance observed SACAIDA drive to and enter Giovanni's BMW Auto Body, stay for a short period of time, and then depart. Subsequent intercepts over target telephone # 19 (SACAIDA's telephone) on February 25, 2004 confirmed AVILA calling SACAIDA but getting voice mail instead.

The residence has a front porch or covered stoop with two (2) doors about 6 feet apart but on the same level. 56 Hurd Street is accessed through the right hand door. The numerals "56" are clearly visible (on the brick facade) just to the left of the right hand door. (A photograph of 56 Hurd Street, Malden, MA is included as Attachment B.)

45. I believe that 56 Hurd Street, Malden, MA is the residence of Phil ASARO, a kilogram (cocaine) customer of MADERA and GERMOSEN, and is a location where ASARO takes delivery of drugs from MADERA and GERMOSEN, stores drugs prior to its re-sale to ASARO's own customers, and stores the illegal cash proceeds of his cocaine distribution business based upon the following facts:

- 1) According to the utility, "National Grid," the listed subscriber for electrical service at 56 Hurd Street, Malden, MA is Nella ASARO and Phil ASARO (activation date 8/7/00); 2) ASARO has been observed driving a grey Chevrolet Avalanche (MA Reg. K40456, registered to Patriot Paving & Construction, 77 Alexander Road, Billerica, MA) numerous times since October 2003. This vehicle was seen parked in the driveway of 56 Hurd Street on or about February 17, 2004, but with different MA Registration (K51997); 3) surveillance of 56 Hurd Street the same day confirmed a black Ford Expedition (MA Reg. US 67AM) registered to Philip ASARO, 238 School Street, Apt.#3, Somerville, MA; 4) ASARO has been observed coming and going from 56 Hurd Street, including November 13, 2003, when ASARO exited 56 Hurd Street, Malden, MA, enter the black Chevrolet Avalanche (MA Reg. K40456), and drive towards Broadway in Malden; and 5) After several conversations between MADERA and ASARO on February 8, February 11, and February 12, 2004, in which ASARO negotiated to buy cocaine from MADERA, surveillance observed MADERA and GERMOSEN drive their vehicle to 56 Hurd Street early in the afternoon of February 12, presumably, to deliver cocaine to ASARO.

47. I believe that 17 Farm Avenue, Peabody, MA is another of the residences/locations leased by the SACAIDA, MARTINEZ, MADERA organization (including 46 Wyman Street, 115 Alley Street, and 6 Endicott Street) to store/conceal either drugs, drug proceeds, or other documentary and physical evidence of the organization's illegal conduct based upon the following facts: 1) 978 535-8249, the land line for 17 Farm Avenue, Peabody, MA was subscribed to Sagrario Godinez (SACAIDA's wife) but terminated in December 2003. (Currently no land line service for 17 Farm Avenue; 2) On September 17, 2003, myself and other agents conducted a "trash pull" from 17 Farm Avenue and seized the following items: (a) clear plastic wrapping material consistent with kilogram or marijuana wrappers; (b) a paper with 603 265-0100 written on it; the same number of target telephone # 4, cellular telephone used by MARTINEZ; (c) a paper/ring for $5000; (d) a portion of a $50 bill; and (e) bag of small elastics commonly used to wrap bundles of money; 3) On September 29, 2004, ROSALES called GARCIA and asked if he had been "to the countryside today (17 Farm Ave, Peabody, MA) ...because I wanted you to take out the muchachas" (referring to marijuana)...if possible right now, I want you to take them over there where you put the names...over there in Danvers". (ROSALES was directing GARCIA, I believe, to move marijuana from 17 Farm Ave, Peabody, MA ("countryside") to 6 Endicott Street, Danvers, MA (another organization location). In the same intercept, monitors overheard CHON (in the background) telling GARCIA to leave "the keys" (to 17 Farm Avenue, Peabody, MA) on one of the tires of "the Explorer" (referring to an organization vehicle that was, evidently, parked at 17 Farm Avenue that day); 4) during a November 11, 2003 intercept between SACAIADA and CHON, SACAIADA directed CHON to get rid of la casa del campo (Spanish for "the house in the country," and a coded reference, I believe, to terminating the lease to 17 Farm Avenue); 5) On February 7, 2004, video surveillance confirmed CHON (driving the blue Ford Explorer) emptying the mailbox at 17 Farm Avenue, then driving down the driveway towards the house. (On previous days, video surveillance identified ROSALES and GARCIA at 17 Farm Avenue; 6) On February 19, 2004 video surveillance observed SACAIADA (driving the blue Ford Explorer) enter the driveway of 17 Farm Avenue³¹;

7) On February 10, 2004, MADERA and an unidentified Hispanic male (UM) discussed selling 1000 pounds of marijuana for $600 a pound. MADERA was not interested ("I try to keep away from that stuff...") but agreed to ask SACAIADA about it when he arrived. ("This old man is on his way right now.") On February 19, 2004 at 12:24 p.m., SACAIADA told MADERA that he had just been to the Campo Deportivo (country/farm, referring, I believe, to 17 Farm Avenue), that he was "just in it," and that "they (landlord) are giving (renting) it to me." (An indication the property will, again, be utilized by SACAIADA's organization.) SACAIADA also remarked that the location "would be great for that asshole." (Meaning, I believe, that 17 Farm Avenue would be a good location to store 1000 pounds of marijuana belonging to the UM.) MADERA said he would "call him right now." Three minutes later (at 12:27 p.m.), MADERA called the UM to say that they needed to meet, and that, "someone (SACAIADA) told me to ask you about something." At 1:28 p.m., MADERA called SACAIADA to tell him that he had "talked to this guy (UM). "And," asked SACAIADA. "He says he has no problem with it...He says it's okay with him," replied MADERA. SACAIADA countered, "because I think its perfect for him...don't you think so?"

II. PROBABLE CAUSE TO SUPPORT ARREST/SEARCH WARRANTS

48. In connection with the Title III intercept initially authorized by the Court on August 1, 2003 and which, to date, is ongoing, approximately three quarters of the conversations that have been intercepted have been conducted in Spanish and, as such, have been transcribed into English by Spanish/English interpreters. The remaining conversations have been conducted in English, owing to the fact that some of the SACAIDA/MARTINEZ/MADERA organization's customers - RUSCIO, GREENBERG, ASARO - speak English when ordering drugs. Some of the conversations also contained either coded, cryptic, or veiled language in order to hide the intended meaning of the calls and, as a result, evade law enforcement detection.

Background

49. Based upon a review of these conversations, corroborated agent surveillance, analysis of telephone and other commercial data base records, confidential informant information, as well as a series of controlled drug purchases and recorded telephone conversations made by undercover agents/officers or cooperating individuals in the months preceding the commencement of the Title III intercept, I believe that SACAIDA, MARTINEZ, and MADERA head a sophisticated international cocaine distribution organization that is centered in Lynn, MA.

50. Through the efforts and contacts of his uncle based in Mexico (SACAIDA), MARTINEZ has, in the past, been able to secure multi kilogram loads of cocaine by arranging for multi kilogram shipments to be smuggled from Mexico into the United States and, thereafter, to New York and other parts of the country, including Lynn, MA. When drugs arrived in Lynn, MARTINEZ was assisted by MADERA (his brother-in-law) in its distribution to their own broad customer base, as well as to the drug customers of MARTINEZ' lieutenant/associate, ROSALES. To facilitate distribution, MARTINEZ and MADERA have commonly utilized large SUVs that contained roomy hidden compartments capable of secreting many kilograms of cocaine. As drug proceeds were collected by organization members, SACAJADA, MARTINEZ, and MADERA began the process anew of planning future cocaine shipments from Mexico to this area.

51. During the past six months that the Title III intercepts have been ongoing, investigators have learned that MARTINEZ, unexpectedly, was forced to return to Mexico to care for his ailing mother in mid September 2003 and left his associates MADERA and ROSALES in charge of the organization's business affairs in his absence. As a result, large shipments of cocaine from Mexico abruptly stopped in the Fall of 2003 and resumption of such shipments was not expected until MARTINEZ could return to the area. In the interim, MADERA and ROSALES have managed, with some difficulty, to keep their customer base supplied with cocaine by relying upon a handful of kilogram level suppliers from around Lynn, MA (ACOSTA), as well from suppliers living out of state - Roberto GUZMAN (CT) and Diego BALBI (NY).

Notwithstanding these efforts, MADERA and ROSALES have been "putting off" their customers (who have been demanding more cocaine) by promising them that the organization was expecting a large shipment of drugs in early 2004. Intercepts since November 2003 have also confirmed that SACAJIDA has supplanted MARTINEZ in overall management of the organization and relegated MARTINEZ to a lesser role; SACAJIDA has, apparently, engineered the shipment of a large load of cocaine (perhaps 350 kilograms of cocaine) from a source in Mexico and is planning to bring that shipment to the Lynn, MA area very shortly; that SACAJIDA has raised funds from multiple sources (including cash from MADERA and real estate from MARTINEZ) to secure this drug shipment; that SACAJIDA dispatched his spouse, Sagrario Godinez, to Massachusetts on November 13, 2003 to handle the organization's bookkeeping matters as well as ready one of the organization residences (6 Endicott Street, Danvers, MA) for his arrival; and that both SACAJIDA and MARTINEZ are planning to return to Lynn very soon to oversee the receipt and distribution of this drug shipment to the customers base of MARTINEZ, MADERA, and ROSALES.

52. Additional evidence gathered, to date, indicates that ROSALES, CHON, Ricardo MARTINEZ, GARCIA, and GERMOSEN, work at the direction of SACAJIDA, MARTINEZ, and MADERA by assisting them with the distribution of kilogram amounts of cocaine and the related collection of illegal drug proceeds. In addition,
